

Hi everyone!

February is already here. We hope your term is going very well so far, and that you are finding time to relax outside of your academic work.

This month, we are gearing up for Research Day which would be held on Tuesday, April 14, 2020! For students who are not (yet) sure what to submit, or if they should even submit a proposal, fear not! The GAAs will be available for consultations if you want to discuss your ideas. Just shoot us an email if you want to meet.

Find more information about it and the events for this month below,
