

Course Information

Prefix & number	Title
EDST 557	Professional Ethics and School Leadership
Instructor	Prerequisites or restrictions (if any)
Sam Rocha	none

Focus or Content

A humanities-based approach to ethics and moral philosophy in the context of leadership professions in schooling institutions.

Goals, Objectives or Learning Outcomes

Consider ethical and moral questions of human flourishing and the good life. Understand the historical truth and moral reality of schooling institutions, with a particular focus on Truth and Reconciliation and residential schooling. Study the concept of responsibility in the context of teaching in schools.

Assignments or Assessment Process

Analogical Association Assignments (AAA) and Four-Sentence Papers (FSP).

Notes/Other

This course counts as an elective course for EDAL and SCPE students and is open to students in any other eligible program.