

Course Information

Prefix & number	Title
EDST 571	Educational Research: Relating Questions, Theory and Methodologies
Instructor	Prerequisites or restrictions (if any)
Ali A. Abdi	None

Focus or Content

The course focuses on the general methodologies of education as both centrally and selectively situated within and around the wider social science research contexts and frameworks.

Goals, Objectives or Learning Outcomes

To introduce students to the general philosophical, methodological, epistemological and ethical perspectives of educational research. To provide students the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the basic concepts and different theories of educational research methodologies and methods.

Assignments or Assessment Process

Participation and contributions to seminar discussions: 30%; research project presentation: 30%; research paper: 40%

Notes/Other

--