

Course Information

Prefix & number	Title
EDST 585	Society, Culture and Politics in Education
Instructor	Prerequisites or restrictions (if any)
Ali A. Abdi	None

Focus or Content

The course aims to provide students with the opportunity to engage a wide and interactive analysis and criticisms pertinent to the complex interplays of contemporary societal contexts and education, and the role of education in social development.

Goals, Objectives or Learning Outcomes

To analyze contemporary issues and tensions between and around the interplays of society, education and the political as well cultural issues that inform these; to appreciate and selectively propose as appropriate, possibilities for epistemic decolonization and social justice education.

Assignments or Assessment Process

Participation and contributions to seminar discussions: 30%; research project presentation: 30%; research paper: 40%

Notes/Other

--