

Graduate Programs Advisory and Curriculum Committee (GPACC)

Terms of Reference

(Approved at EDST GPACC Meeting—09 January 2025.
Approved at EDST Department Meeting—20 February 2025.)

1. Mandate

- a. The Graduate Programs Advisory and Curriculum Committee (GPACC) is the committee charged with advising on matters related to graduate programs within the Department of Educational Studies (EDST).
- b. GPACC members are responsible for reviewing, advising, and assessing the department's graduate programs, curriculum development, scholarships and awards, and admissions and enrolments.
- c. GPACC offers its members a space where information and knowledge about EDST, the Faculty of Education, and UBC is collegially shared, and where lines of communications with other units and constituencies are transparent, based on accurate information and documentary materials.

2. Accountability and Reporting

- a. GPACC is chaired by the Graduate Curriculum Coordinator of the Department or the faculty member appointed by the Head of Department (HOD). GPACC's Chair:
 - i. reports to and updates the HOD through the Head's Advisory Committee (HAC);
 - ii. reports to, updates, and submits all GPACC recommendations and GPACC-approved documents for discussion and approval for EDST Department meetings;
 - iii. serves as the liaison between EDST and the Faculty of Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies (G+PS);
 - iv. serves as the liaison between EDST and the Faculty of Education's Graduate Curriculum Advisory Committee (GCAC);
 - v. represents EDST on GCAC in all matters pertaining to GCAC's mandate, including consultations regarding curriculum changes (Category 1 and 2);
 - vi. liaises with EDST's program area coordinators;
 - vii. liaises with EDST's Graduate Advisor.
- b. GPACC decisions are submitted by the Chair to EDST Department Meetings.

- c. GPACC decisions submitted by GPACC's Chair to GCAC are recommendations subject to discussion and feedback. GPACC's Chair reports back to GPACC on GCAC discussions and shares GCAC feedback and requests for revisions before their resubmission to the EDST Department Meeting.
- d. GPACC must maintain its own records and is supported by the Graduate Programs Assistant who acts as its secretary.
- e. GPACC's Chair is responsible to prepare and disseminate all documents for meetings at least 4 days ahead of the scheduled date of a meeting.

3. Membership and Composition

- a. GPACC membership is composed of the various constituents in EDST (programs, committees, members of EDST's leadership team, and students).
- b. GPACC members are expected to inform the constituents they represent of pertinent issues discussed in GPACC. Similarly, they are expected to report back to GPACC on discussions, deliberations, recommendations, and proposals for action and change that took place in their constituent group.
- c. GPACC members are expected to participate in all deliberations and activities as applicable, except when specified leave, professional responsibilities, or emergencies prevent attendance. If unable to participate, a GPACC member will ensure an alternate member affiliated with their constituent group acts as an alternate representative to GPACC for the duration of the absence.
